

WOMEN ROBBED IN POOL-ROOMS

Police Captain Hussey Shows How When Gambling Craze Strikes a Wife and Mother Homes Are Often Broken Up.

THEY HAVEN'T SINGLE CHANCE TO WIN BET.

Places Run by Conscienceless Swindlers, and Captain Believes Best Way to Break Them Is to Punish Players.

The woman's pool-room is a con-scienceless swindle.

It is a far worse pest to society than the policy shop.

The bettors never have the barest chance to win.

They are run by the outcasts of the gambling fraternity.

These are but a few of the terse criticisms of the pool-rooms for women made by Police Captain Hussey to-day before he appeared in the West-Side Court against several prisoners captured in a raid on a flat in West Thirty-ninth street.

Capt. Hussey, who is a quiet little man, with a keen black eye, a firm and resolute mouth and a convincing way of saying much in a few words, has one of the worst predilections in the city, which he is cleaning up with commendable activity.

"These women's pool-rooms," said the captain, to an Evening World reporter, "are what I might call the vermin of gambling establishments. They are like-sisters' webs, woven in a night, and the women who frequent them fall in the mesh as hopelessly as the feeblest of flies."

"There should be a law in regard to these places as stringent as the law enforced against policy shops. The women bettors should be considered to be punishment as well as the proprietors, for that is the only way to teach the victims a lesson. These women who will neglect their homes and their household duties to go to these pool-rooms should be looked up for a few days every time they are caught."

Bettor Has No Chance.
"If anything, these pool-rooms are worse than policy shops, or any similar gambling game, for there is not the slightest chance for the bettor to win."

"The persons who start these places are the cheap touts and gamblers who frequent the pool-rooms. They are the scrapers up an acquaintance with women who bet on the races. They need little money to get up one of these places.
For all they have to do is to hire a flat in a tenement-house and install a telephone."

"Then they send around circulars by their women agents and they get their patrons flock to them. How they get the information on the races over the telephone I don't know. It really ranks little drivers and gamblers who they get the information or not, for they have their crooked women touts in the flat to steer the patrons up against the dead ones."

COP DELICIOUS AFTER AN ARREST

Policeman Wagner Served Warrant on Rich James Cunningham ham at Morton House, and Something Happened to Him

HE IS AT HOME, ILL;
PRISONER IS GONE.

Warrant Was Sworn Out by Mrs. Cunningham, Who Wants Her Rights in a $175,000 Property Deal Protected.

Policeman Wagner, of the West Side Court house, served a warrant on James Cunningham at the Morton House early to-day. Ever since that time he has been delicious and can give no explanation as to the whereabouts of his prisoner. A general alarm has been sent out for Cunningham, who is a man of great wealth, his father was the late Patrick H.
Cunningham, who made a big fortune in real estate investments. His wife is a cousin of John F. Carroll.

Wife the Complainant.
In the West Side Court to-day William Henry Knox, lawyer, of No. 25 Vinlam street, representing Mrs. Minnie K.
Cunningham, the wife of the missing man, said that last night Wagner was given a warrant for the arrest of Cunningham. A brother of Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. Kane, accompanied Wagner to the Morton House, and there the warrant was served. Then Kane left.
Ward was received at court to-day from Wagner saying that he was home in bed. A policeman was sent to his house brought back word to Magistrate Zeller that Wagner was delicious and could tell nothing of what happened after he had served the warrant.

Property Rights in Peril.
A week ago Mrs. Cunningham appeared before Magistrate Cornell and asked for the arrest of her husband.
She declared that he had negotiated for the sale of property to the price of which was $175,000. She feared that her husband intended to desert her and she wanted her rights in the property protected.

Mr. Cunningham had been missing for about two weeks, but was finally located at the Morton House. He is a graduate of Manhattan College and is about twenty-four years of age. He is a property rights in the property protected.

BUSINESS BLOCKS RECREATION PIER.

Residents of the West Side Complain Because of Obstructions on the Asphalted Space at the Foot of Fiftieth Street.

Residents of the district which enjoys and profits by the Recreation Pier at the foot of West Fiftieth street are up in arms over the obstructions which have been placed in the way of their complete pleasure. Complaints have been made to District Leader Daniel F.
McMahon, but without avail as yet.

The Dock Department, under Commissioner Maurice Weatherston, has not taken official cognizance of the displeasure of the citizens either.

Five years ago, when the recreation pier was opened, a fire hydrant on the piazza in front of it was removed four blocks north at the instance of Senator George W. Plunkitt. To-day the entire piazza, asphalted at a cost of about $10,000, is totally encumbered to the exclusion of the boys, girls and young men and women who have enjoyed the facilities the asphalted space offered up to this year. It is filled with piles of lumber, brick, sand, gravel and stone.

No place is left for the sports which used to enliven the recreation-pier crowds. It is all business.

And for this the city is getting less than $200 a month!

Approach Made Narrower.
Even the approach to the pier has been narrowed down until less than the full street width remains. The only place for the summer evening crowd to gather is on the pier proper, and the idea of an open breathing space, where the boys and girls could play and the tired mothers and fathers promenade as do their more fortunate brothers and sisters on Fifth avenue, is entirely nullified. There is just the pier there and nothing more.

The leading of the asphalted space was started last year under Mayor McDonald's administration. Dock Commissioner McDougall Hawkes gave concessions to several business concerns to use the asphalted plaza space, and the present city government has not seen fit as yet to rescind the orders which give.

There are more than 30,000 square feet of asphalt at something more than 10 cents a square foot that have been given over to business, cutting off the pleasant promenade granted to the people of the district.

Lumber, brick, sand and stone cover the space where, on pleasant evenings, the boys and girls congregated. There can be no more ball-playing on the plaza, no more marbles, no more hop-scotch and tag.

All Appeals Have Failed.
All appeals to the present administration have so far failed. The business concerns, the Lumber Company, Company, Cusick & Ryan, the contractors, Brooks, contractor, and Keating, the builder, have taken the pleasure ground.

And all that the city gets for revenue for cutting off the free sporting place is barely more than $200 a year! Possibly $200 more was spent in this administration for a definite purpose—to give the people of the city a breathing spot and a playground. It at present is not being used as such. The pier is an upper but the pleasure have lessened its value very greatly.

Long Drinking Bout Alleged.
So far, Lane, who is in charge of the police, has refused to believe that he made an investigation of Wagner's conduct and would prefer charges against him. According to the report sent to the court, Wagner took Cunningham up Sixth avenue to Forty-seventh street, where he was arrested.
